Export Network - Towards 2020

4 August 2011

Lunch and Symposium

Venue: National Portrait Gallery Time: 12.00 noon - 4.30pm

Export Network - Towards 2020 Symposium is a unique event designed to celebrate 10 years of the ACT Exporters' Network, and to bring together as many of ACT Exporters and stakeholders as possible so that relevant and accurate input can be provided to ACT Government to assist in shaping the ACT Export Strategy for the next 10 years toward 2020.

To begin the celebrations the Network's birthday cake will be cut by the ACT Chief Minister, Katy Gallagher, Austrade's Deputy Chief, Peter Yuile, and award winning exporter Brand Hoff. A detailed program will be available shortly, with confirmed speakers including Dr Andrew Leigh MP and Mr Glenn Keys, Managing Director, Aspen Medical.

Guest Speaker: Matt Barrie

Matt Barrie is an award winning entrepreneur, technologist and lecturer. He is Chief Executive of Freelancer.com, the world's largest outsourcing marketplace connecting over 2.5 million professionals from around the globe, and in the top 250 websites globally.

Freelancer.com primarily connects small businesses and individuals from the western world with freelancers in the developing world, empowering entrepreneurs on both sides of the globe. To date, over 1 million projects have been outsourced through Freelancer.com.

Matt is serial entrepreneur, previously as founder and CEO of Sensory Networks Inc., a vendor of high performance network security processors. Prior to this he founded a telecommunications hardware company. Matt has raised over $40M USD in financing from venture capital, strategic investors and through government grants while running or assisting technology companies.
